

INFORMATION AND TECHNOLOGY MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

LADD utilizes several systems to make sure that personal and confidential information is protected and accessible. In order to achieve this a comprehensive approach to organizing and securing information and technology systems is divided into three basic categories:

- Administrative – training, auditing, reporting
- Physical – locked doors, screen protectors
- Technical – login passwords, wireless passwords

The information in this section is related to these categories.

